A Wonderful Christmas Party in a Festive State of Mind

On Christmas Eve, the smell and feel of the festival have filled up our cozy space in TLBU with the Christmas carols. We celebrate with peace and love as a precious tradition and for some junior students, this Christmas Party is the first-time cultural experience. Thus this fantastic party with our family members in TLBU is the best way to enjoy the time!

In this very special day of the year, we rejoice the birth of Jesus, the Savior. With a very well organized and exquisitely designed decoration done led by Dai Linxuan, the party kicked off with ambience of joy and warmth.

Two Santa Claus showed up at our event, delivering gifts to everyone. They are senior Xu jun from China and junior Por from Cambodia. We also enjoyed special performance by Holy Mass Group and very talented seniors in a short play resembling the excerpt from the movie Mary of Nazareth, reckoning the early life of Jesus, Joseph and Mary. Juniors contributed to the party with a jolly and lovely dance and jingly Christmas carols.

The energy and mood presented were so infectious that the audiences cheerfully laughed and clapped. President remarked on our show and performed to us a dolce and melodic Christmas Carol Adeste Fideles. The spirit however, not only consists of uniting and feasting, but loving and sharing in a deep sense. We are embraced by this festive state of mind and determining to achieve the ethics of giving and sacrifice ever since. Christmas symbolizes the love and mercy of God and His only son. We are grateful for our savior and we will do our work in our life with this coming year with our stronger spiritual strength.

New Year Party — New Goals, Stronger Hope, Motivation and Confidence

In the history of TLBU family, we are always convinced and aware that we are special from others ever since we realize that we are a part of this family. Owing to the fact that, it is not just that we physically come together as a family but as well, we are mentally fond to one another throughout the time when we spent together from the first footstep we mark. Particularly, on 31st December 2013, we celebrated yet another tremendous occasion, New Year's Eve party. The thing that makes this event far more special was, our beloved President decided to stay and celebrate on this precious day with us before he took off for yet another TLBU mission in United States. The Party started at 8 o'clock in that night. While each table was filled with foods offered by President to further brighten the joy and happiness. His presence on the very day means a lot to each one of us since we've all been quite distanced from our actual parents and family.

Subsequently, to make the event more memorable deep down in our hearts, President first kicked off his warm-hearted speech to welcome the New Year. To begin with, he simply dug out the long-lost history of TLBU, then came along with one and only hope of his lifetime's efforts for more achievements in TLBU mission, he mainly elaborated about TLBU Future mission, the Three Business Projects. Firstly, TLBU Global System and TLBU-Onnuri International Law Firm, under the vision of president, TLBU-Onnuri International Law Firm has been successfully established in December 2013, whose owner is the TLBU former student.

This law firm will firstly starts off its walk with 11 Korean lawyers and some international legal experts. Accordingly, we will recruit and train 15 Korean lawyers for 5 months every year in the next 5 years continuously to operate an efficient international law firm in Seoul, at the same time to operate TLBU international law firm in Washington DC, NY-NJ and Paris.

Secondly, TLBU Global System and International Trade, TLBU Inc. is located in the capital city of Korea, Seoul and Infant King Management LLC, United States of America. This trading system currently focuses on introducing a few potential items in its designated markets. Thirdly, TLBU Global School and International Program for Chinese Children, this very project is currently still in recruiting progress and is established for sole determination which to provide special academic experience for those recruited children to be well-equipped with all the qualities that they need to make their dreamy future possible. Later that night, all seniors and juniors are allowed to express their diverse thinking and gratitude.

Lastly, we welcomed the New Year with the everlasting spirit of TLBU Alma Mater to start off the New Year with even stronger hope, motivation and confidence. Without any doubt, we just know that we are proud to be a part of this remarkable Family and we pray for its prosperity.

The way, The Truth and The Life — TLBU Memory

It has been more than six years since I graduated from TLBU in Seoul in July 2007. With the support of dear President, I had the chance to further study in Paris and got another Master Degree in Paris 1 University (La Sorbone).

As a rural boy from remote area of China, TLBU is always considered as the turning point for my life. It is the training in TLBU that enables me to be better and better in my daily work. In 2012, I had the chance to deliver an English Speech in WTO as a representative of Chinese Government. When I was on the stage facing representatives from more than 100 countries and regions, I thought of our Field Study in WTO. Until now, I still remember the scene that President regularly practiced French with us in order to improve our French before departure for Paris. Several years later, I had the chance to negotiate with Switzerland for China-Switzerland Free Trade Agreement. Although the official language of negotiation is English, my French helped me to fully understand the intention of the counterpart and make our negotiation strategy. (The representatives of Switzerland talked privately in French).

It is the teaching from President that guides me to overcome hardships and make progress in my life. "Hard working, regular life, physical exercise", those frequently mentioned words by President are still in my mind and put into practice, although sometime partially. Not until recently I learned a little bit Latin, I understand the Latin inscribed on the front gate of TLBU building. "PAX DOMINI SIT SEMPER O M I N I B U S" , (Peace of the Lord is always with all).

I still remember the words of President, "Don't be the slave of money, don't be the slave of power." The everlasting meaning of President's teachings is far more than this.

My eternal memory about TLBU is about President, about friends, about the beautiful campus, is about the way, the truth and the life.

2014, Brand new start. Sincerely wish dear President, TLBU, Alumni ,all the best!

Alumna DAI Liu visited TLBU in Seoul

On December 24th, alumna DAI Liu who graduated from China University of Political Science and Law and was enrolled into TLBU Graduate School in 2003, came back school for a visit. Like a father having his beloved daughter back home, President Lyou welcomed senior DAI Liu with a warm hug.

During the meeting, President Lyou introduced the new development and achievements of TLBU in recent years, especially the well-operated international trade and the fast-developed structure of TLBU. President also asked alumna DAI Liu regarding her current affairs and encouraged her to achieve her goal as well as our TLBU mission.

President said that alumna DAI Liu was the youngest student in class 2003, and she was one of the most brilliant and promising students. Not only did she handle well in studying laws, but also earned herself an Accounting certificate, and currently she is working in a Korean Bank. Alumna DAI Liu talked about her career and recent situations of her classmates. She said they really miss those days that they stayed in TLBU, and they have been cherishing much the friendships they have for each other and the deep love for TLBU. She hoped that she could contribute more to achieve the TLBU mission.

The meeting lasted around one hour, and Alumna DAI Liu brought a delicate Chinese tea set as a gift for President, wishing him a healthy and happy life.
